Marketing Communications

Our socially responsible investment strategies seek to deliver attractive financial returns while encouraging issuers to embrace Corporate Sustainability that contribute to the UN Sustainable Development Goals

“Corporate Sustainability is a company’s delivery of long-term value in financial, environmental, social and ethical terms.”

UN Global Compact

While there are no assurances that investment objectives can be achieved, we believe Corporate Sustainability positions companies for enhanced resiliency and access to capital, leading to a lower propensity to default.

THE EXTRA-FINANCIAL OBJECTIVE

We believe the integration of ESG risk mitigation and the identification of key characteristics that define well-conceived corporate sustainability strategies enhances our ability to meet our funds' financial objectives. ESG risk mitigation, however, does not guarantee optimal asset allocation. See "Important Disclosure and Disclaimers" in this presentation for additional information.

Our actively managed responsible investment strategies share an extra-financial objective to encourage issuers of below investment grade debt to embrace Corporate Sustainability, as defined by the UN Global Compact and the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises, and contribute to Sustainable Development through business activity that increasingly aligns with one or more of the 17 UN Sustainable Development Goals.

Over time, our actively managed strategies are expected to generally have heavier weighting for issuers with more positive E, S, G and HR^{rts} metrics and momentum towards corporate sustainability. We intend to monitor such progress according to each of these four dimensions using specific Impact Indicators:

Environment: Direct and Indirect GHG emissions (Scope 1 & 2)

Social: Safety & Wellness Factor

Governance: Chief Sustainability Officer or Committee

Human Rights: CSR HR^{rts} *

*Covering the three themes of governance & policies, due diligence, and remediation & grievance mechanisms

CORPORATE SUSTAINABILITY BREADTH AND DEPTH INCREASING THROUGH THE HIGH YIELD ISSUER UNIVERSE

Based on our tracking of key E,S,G and HR^{rt}s factors in our proprietary value rubric, we see some concepts more fully embraced with deeper implementation accelerating across certain topics.

Category	High Yield Companies	% of Issuer Universe	Year-over-Year Growth	Commentary
G	Issuing a sustainability report and/or commentary	69%	-3%	At ~70% the y/y modest decline is likely from constituent changes, but generally seems well penetrated across universe. We also increased our minimum standard to qualify.
G	Integrating reporting standards (e.g. GRI, SASB)	53%	+28%	HY management is getting the message that standardized transparency is important for investors.
G	Chief Sustainability Officer (or Board Ownership)	60%	+23%	Much higher uptake directly into Board governance and additional c-level management positions.
G	C-suite compensation tied to ESG or sustainability	21%	+74%	Big growth rate y/y, while uptake is increasing across the universe.
E	Met highest standard of TCFD reporting	39%	+58%	Significant growth across universe as management teams are getting more familiar with the concept and how to discuss environmental risks and opportunities.
E	Net Zero commitment	27%	+61%	Still low penetration, but an advanced topic that is growing. Given the low penetration, we saw even less with science based target pathways, but expect that will be a developing concept over the next several years.
S	Chief Diversity Officer (or C-suite committee)	56%	+23%	Consistent improvement and uptake across all DE&I factors tracked.
S	DEI policies and strategies	69%	+20%
S	DEI collective efforts	46%	+28%

Health and safety metrics, human rights policies and community engagement showing limited growth and moving towards “table stakes” as companies seem to understand these are minimum disclosures and corporate values

Collective engagements

Continued Paris aligned working group participation

The goals remain to acquire more information AND to raise the bar by advocating for advancements in the respective categories.

Q1 spotlight

We were impressed to engage with a technology company in the semiconductor space on carbon reduction and water reduction targets. The company recently adopted a net zero goal by 2050 with science-based targets. One area of focus for them is renewable energy, specifically solar which is ramping up across various jurisdictions. They also are embarking on a water intensity reduction target of 20% by 2030 with a 3% reduction coming in 2022. They have progressed more quickly on waste reduction targets. What we find impressive is they have ambitious targets and are fairly well defined, yet disclosed that they have had limited ESG engagements (6) from equity investors and we were the first from the credit side.

We have been advocating for hospital companies to publicly produce a human rights policy given they are already embarking on many of these principles. We believe the more companies that publish and uphold human rights policies and standards the more pressure it puts on those without policies and standards to follow suit.

Climate Targets Assessment (% Portfolio Weight)

In order to transition, holdings need to commit to alignment with international climate goals and demonstrate future progress. Currently 38% of the portfolio's value is committed to such a goal. This includes ambitious targets set by the companies as well as committed and approved Science Based Targets (SBT). While commitments are not a guarantee to reach a goal, the 47% of the portfolio without a goal is unlikely to transition and should receive special attention from a climate risk conscious investor.

 "Benchmark" is ICE BofA US High Yield Index for relative comparison only. The Fund is benchmarked to the ICE BofA Global High Yield Fund.

SDS refers to the Sustainable Development Scenario, an integrated scenario introduced in the IEA's World Energy Outlook that specifies a plausible pathway to concurrently achieve universal energy access, meeting the objectives of the Paris Agreement on climate change and significantly reducing air pollution by 2030.

NET ZERO ANALYSIS

SKY Harbor affirmed its net zero portfolio targets to have at least 20% of the portfolio in material sectors considered net zero, aligned or aligning by 2030. Given the low amount in the high yield universe that are aligning currently we need to continue to accelerate the rate of change over the next decade through individual and collective engagements, regulatory enhancements, corporate and social pressures.

The 15% minimum shall comprise a minimum proportion of 5% each in SKY Harbor-defined Environmental and Social Sustainable Investments, respectively.

This commitment highlights one of several features of our multi-faceted approach to socially responsible investing, which, among other criteria, employs a proprietary SKYSIS Scoring methodology that seeks to identify sustainably responsible companies that offer products and services having a direct nexus with identifiable SDG goals while also evaluating the positive or negative impacts of investee companies with respect to certain mandatory and optional Principal Adverse Indicators as set forth in the SFDR Regulatory Technical Standards.

Other SKY Harbor-defined Sustainable Investments criteria include labeled bonds issued expressly to achieve sustainable investments or sustainable contributions as well as bonds that meet top tier scores rated by ISS-ESG Solutions®, an independent ESG-oriented screening service. (See SHGF’s prospectus for a detailed description of the methodology; available at www.skyharborglobalfunds.com).

The Principal Adverse Impacts are more specifically categorized and described as follows:

E = High Transition Risk

S = Exploitive Business Models

G = Specified Unlawful Acts (e.g., bribery, corruption, tax evasion, product liability, failure of Board oversight).

HR^{ts} = Endangers Human Rights (i.e., verified and unredeemed material violations of internationally proclaimed norms and conventions regarding human rights).

If an issuer has more than one Principal Adverse Impact, the analyst will assign the Principal Adverse Impact score to the category that is most severe.

Conversely, SKY Harbor uses a positive impact score to reward particularly commendable behaviors, initiatives or efforts. Analysts will assign a score to one of E, S, or G based on the dimension that is most aligned with the positive impact. In addition, SKY Harbor’s analysts monitor companies’ response to engagement efforts. An engagement score is included in the calculation of the total G score.

This Final score is computed as the sum of the E, S, G and HR^{ts} underlying scores. Issuers with a Rubric score below SKY Harbor’s minimum threshold are excluded from the investible universe of the Fund.

At least 20% of the issuers in the underlying universe of the sub-Funds (as defined by the ICE BofA US High Yield Index, HOA0) shall be excluded at all times as a result of the combination of negative exclusions and the failure to meet SKY Harbor’s minimum Value Rubric score criterion.

ISS ESG CARBON DATA DEFINITIONS AND CALCULATION METHODOLOGIES

Total Analysis Value – is the aggregate value of positions that meet the minimum eligibility criteria (data availability for Adjusted Enterprise Value, scope 1&2 emissions and scope 1&2 emissions intensity / revenue millions)

Share Disclosed – calculates the % number of companies that report reliable emissions in the portfolio. The difference between total coverage% and share disclosed% is the modeled company %.

Total Coverage – total analysis value / total market value

Position Ownership Ratio – Aggregated position value / Adjusted Enterprise Value (total debt + market capitalization)

Scope 1 & 2 – reported as tCO₂e

$$\sum_i^n \text{Position Ownership Ratio} \times \text{Position Scope 1\&2 Emissions}_i$$

Including Scope 3 – same as above including Scope 1-3

Relative Carbon Footprint – provides a measure of emission exposure per value of the portfolio invested reported as tCO₂e per $ analyzed

$$\frac{\text{Emission Exposure}}{\text{Total Analysis Value}}$$

Carbon Intensity – Relative emission exposure that measures emission share in tCO₂e relative to the % holding of a company's revenue stream. Reported as tCO₂e / M Revenue (currency)

$$\frac{(\sum_i^n \text{Position Ownership Ratio}_i \times \text{Position Scope 1\&2 Emissions}_i)}{(\sum_i^n \text{Position Ownership Ratio}_i \times \text{Position Revenue}_i)}$$

Weighted Average Carbon Intensity – Similar as above but eliminates the Adjusted Enterprise Value impact. Reported as tCO₂e / M Revenue (currency)

$$\sum_i^n \text{Position Weight}_i \times \frac{\text{Position Scope 1 \& 2 Emissions}_i}{\text{Position Revenue}_i}$$

IMPACT INDICATORS: DEFINITIONS AND METHODOLOGIES

The integration of the four components of the Sustainability Factors forms the foundation that further supports the Fund's extra-financial objectives.

4 Impact Indicators (one for each of the E, S, G and HR^{ts} dimensions) have been designed to monitor the performance of the sub-Fund and to compare it to the high yield universe.

Environment:

The Environmental Impact Indicator is the Direct and Indirect GHG emissions (Scope 1 & 2).

Unit of measure: Score based on Tons of CO2 equivalents per unit of revenue (in USD millions) using an equivalence table.

Source: ISS-ESG

Goal: to achieve at least 70% coverage of the sub-Funds that can be consistently measured by this indicator.

Social:

The Social Impact Indicator is the Safety & Wellness Factor.

Unit of measure: Percentage based on Boolean indicator (disclosure of specific measures, protocols and/or principles to ensure the Safety and Wellness of the company's workforce).

Source: This indicator is proprietary to SKY Harbor.

Goal: to achieve at least 90% coverage of the sub-Funds that can be consistently measurable according to this indicator.

Nothing contained in this document is or should be construed as an advertisement, or an offer to enter any contract, investment advisory agreement, a recommendation to buy or sell securities of any kind, a solicitation of clients, or an offer to invest in any particular security, fund, product, investment vehicle, or derivative. Forward-looking statements such as the findings of our analytical research, our outlook for interest rates, central bank policy, the economy, high yield markets and the like, illustrations of ESG integration in our fundamental credit analysis, or our intended adjustments to the portfolios within our flagship strategies are all subject to inherent risks, biases, and uncertainties that are beyond the control of SKY Harbor and may cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations expressed herein.

The information contained herein is subject to change, and SKY Harbor is under no obligation to update any information contained herein. Certain information contained in this document has been obtained from third-party sources and, although believed to be reliable, has not been independently verified, and its accuracy, completeness and fitness of purpose cannot be guaranteed.

Broad High Yield Market Strategy portfolios may include 6%-12% of USD-denominated below-investment-grade corporate debt securities that are not included in the ICE BofA US High Yield Index (“Index”). These securities may have variable coupon schedules, scheduled maturity of less than one year, USD-listed issuers domiciled outside the US, issues with less than $250 million in debt outstanding and new-issue securities not yet in the Index due to routine timing lag. The Index reflects no deductions for fees, expenses or taxes.

Investing in securities involves risk of loss and past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results. Fixed income securities, especially high yield debt securities, are subject to loss of income and principal arising from credit risk, which is the risk that the issuer will be unable to make interest and principal payments when due. Material risks in investing in high yield debt securities also include, but are not limited to, opportunity cost (the risk that an issuer’s credit trends deteriorate resulting in a higher level of compensation demanded by the market relative to the initial investment), interest rate risk, liquidity risk, selection risk, ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) risk (sustainability focused strategies may underperform other high yield strategies), and overall market risk. In general, issuers of high yield debt securities have a greater likelihood of defaulting on the payment of interest or principal than issuers of investment grade bonds. There can be no assurance that the investment objectives described herein will be achieved or that substantial losses can be avoided. Socially responsible investing does not guarantee optimal asset allocation and investment performance and may not necessarily comport with an investor’s own subjective, moral or ethical standards and aspirations. Additional Risk Factors are set forth in relevant offering documents or directly from SKY Harbor.

SKY Harbor is not a tax or legal advisor. Prospective investors should consult their tax or legal advisors before making tax-related investment decisions.
